

The Jungle's Friends

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We would like to thank Colégio Christus for everything, as well as our coordinator Paula and teacher Sávio, who helped us in the situations of difficulty in writing the book.

On a sunny day, Lucas, an eight-year-old boy, went to a trail in the jungle with his parents.

He got lost from his parents when he was looking at the birds, so he started looking for them.

Lucas heard a noise when he was walking through the forest, so he asked:

- Who is there? Can you help me?
Then a monkey came down from a tree and looked at the boy.

The Monkey said:

- How can I help you, little boy?

The boy replied:

- I've got lost from my parents and I need to find them!

The Monkey remembered an old friend, the Zebra, and started looking for him.

After a long walk, they finally found the Zebra. They explained the situation to him, who said:
- I know who can help you, the Lion. He knows the whole jungle.

They searched the river but found nobody.

Among the trees, but found nobody again...

The last place to look for was the cave, they entered and saw the Lion. He was sleeping.

The boy got close to the Lion and said:
- Lion, wake up! I need you to help me.
Roaring, the Lion woke up and asked:
- Roaaar, what do you need?
- I've got lost from my parents and I can't find them.

The Lion agreed to help Lucas and then, they started the walk to find Lucas's parents.

They walked a lot and the Lion saw two people.

So, the Lion asked:

- Lucas, are those people your parents?

- Yes, they are!

- Lucas thanked each of them:
- Thank you Monkey, for helping me from the start.
  - Zebra, thank you for taking us to the Lion.
  - And Lion, thank you for helping me to search for my parents.

After saying goodbye, Lucas ran to his parents and hugged them. Lucas's mom said:

- How did you find us?

The little boy, with a smile on his face, said:

- Huuumm, some friends helped me!
